DETAILED ACTION

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the amendment filed on March 30, 2007, which has been fully considered in this action.
2. Applicant's request for reconsideration of the finality of the rejection of the last Office action is persuasive and, therefore, the finality of that action is withdrawn.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1, 5-7, 11-13 and 17-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by U.S. 2003/0228414(Smith et al).

The applied reference has a common assignee with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

Art Unit: 3752

Smith et al discloses a supersonic kinetic spray nozzle, spray system and method of kinetic spray coating comprising all the featured elements of the instant invention, note specifically, supersonic nozzle 54 with throat 58 having a diameter of 1.3-3.5 mm, exit end 60 having a rectangular cross-sectional area with a long dimension of 8 to 14 mm and a short dimension of 2 to 6 mm, the length from the throat to the exit end varying from 60 to 400 millimeters. For the maximum rectangular cross-sectional area and the minimum length the claims are anticipated.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 2-4, 8-10 and 14-16 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over U.S. 2003/0228414(Smith et al).

U.S. 2003/0228414(Smith et al) discloses all the featured elements of the instant invention except for the expansion rate ranges claimed. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to provide the expansion rate ranges as claimed, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments, see pages 6-9, filed March 30, 2007, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1, 5-7, 11-13 and 17-20 under 35 U.S.C 102(b) as being anticipated by US 2002/0071906 have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of US 2003/0228414.

Conclusion

8. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Heinrich et al shows a supersonic nozzle used in cold gas spraying.
